

-1-

Evidences that old Fort Heber's South East Corner was on 200 North & 100 East

1. "Under Wasatch Skies," pp 9-11
2. "How Beautiful Upon The Mountains," pp 9, 190-1
3. Fort Heber marker about 600 No Main St on East Side of Highway 40 states that the North East Corner was one block south & one block west of that monument: 500 No 100W
4. A copy of John Crook's Journal, ^{pp 2+3} in possession of John Carlile states the SE Corner to be on the John Ephriam MOULTON property
5. Affidavit from Ralph F. Giles that his Grandfather Fredrick Giles (1835-1902) mined his clay, made his own brick & John Ephriam Moulton & they built their own brick homes across the road from each other, and that Moulton's Corner was the SE Corner where the old Fort once stood. Date June 1986
6. The old John Wesley Witt home still stands ⁽¹⁹⁸⁶⁾ on or near the site of his original cabin ²⁰⁰¹ site near the center of the Heber Fort on its west boundary, this would place the southern boundary of the Fort one block So.

Evidence that old Fort Heber's South East Corner was on 250 North & 100 East

1. How Beautiful Upon The Mountains; pp 9, 190-1

3. Fort Heber marker about 200 to 300 ft on East side of highway & states that the North East Corner was one block South & one block west of that monument: 250 No 100W

4. A copy of John Crook's Journal in possession of John Carillo states the SE Corner to be on the John Ephraim MOUNTAIN property

5. Affidavit from Ralph T. Gile that his Grandfather Frederick Gile (1835-1902) mined his clay, made his own brick & John Ephraim Hamilton & they built their own brick homes across the road from each other, and that location Corner was the SE Corner where the old Fort once stood. Date June 1985

6. The old John Wesley Will home still stands (1985) on or near the site of his original cabin Site near the center of the Heber Fort on its west boundary, this would place the southern boundary of the Fort one block so

7. Affidavit from John Wm Jordan, (215 No. 400E) that the John Ephriam & later Dewey Moulton corner was the So. East corner of the old Fort Heber. Date: 5-18-85. Also John Jordan Fort Cabin was on John Ephriam Moulton Corner.
8. Affidavit from Florence Moulton Anderson (Ervin) that Dewey Moulton's home sits on SE corner of Fort Heber Date: 5-23-86
9. Affidavit from John Melvin MOULTON that his Grandfather's Home was on SE corner of Fort Heber. Clyde Naylor UH. Co Surveyor - old Field
10. HBUM pp 205-7 states borders of Fort 2nd to 5th North & 1st to 3rd West
Dick Nicol Map

Walt Montgomery

Nina Reed UH. Co. Recorder

7 Affidavit from John Wm Jordan, (212 No. 400E) that the John Eganham & later Dewey Moulton corner was the east corner of the old Fort Heber. Date: 2-18-85

8 Affidavit from Florence Moulton Anderson (and) that Dewey Moulton's home site on SE corner of Fort Heber. Date: 2-23-86

9 Affidavit from John Melvin Moulton that his Grandfather's home was on SE corner of Fort Heber.

10 HBM pp 202-7 states borders of Fort 2nd to 5th North & 1st to 3rd West